Rochester from contributing its full share specified by the agreement). Mr. Rodrigues said that the petitioners proposed that this be done for one year. Selectman John DeCosta observed that Proposition 2 1/2 will become progressively more restrictive so that a one year amendment would only be a delay of impact and suggested that a change in the agreement should be over a period of years to have any significance.

William Wood, member of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee, said he objected to the vague wording of the petition. He suggested that the petitioners state exactly the intent of the change on a new petition and submit it through the proper sequence of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee to the various towns of Mattapoisett, Rochester and Marion.

Selectman James Huntoon said that he had examined the Old Rochester agreement and observed that the wording included an encompassing "and substance thereof" which presumably would allow the words of the petition which propose discussion to also initiate action even though not spelled out as part of the intent.

Mr. Rodrigues stated that the petitioners would rather go with the wording proposing discussion rather than go through the entire process again and would rather opt for the one year period as being more likely to appeal to the towns.

Selectman Huntoon asked George White, Old Rochester Regional School Committee member, and Mr. Wood if they would support the petition and its intent. Mr. White said that after seeing the words "the substance thereof" and realizing its possibilities that he could support it and thought the rest of the O.R. School Committee would. When pressed, Mr. Wood said that he did not think that he could support the petition because the suspension of the written contract could well open undesirable precedents. Mr. White suggested that the petitioners meet with the Selectmen of all 3 towns and the O.R. School Committee as soon as possible.

The Mattapoisett Selectmen noted that should the petition to allow discussion result in a change in the Regional Agreement for the year it would result in an approximately $78,000 shortfall. Selectmen chairman William Hubbard stated, "We would have to cut another $80,000 to pick up the amount to meet the (Old Rochester Regional) assessment as it is."

It was agreed to set up a meeting of Regional Town Selectmen, School Committee members and petitioners as soon as possible.

Now a word or two about the trips. On Tuesday, May 5, we plan to visit the Constitution Museum in Charlestown. We think that there will be time enough to stop a short while at the Quincy Market and have lunch. On Thursday, May 7, the trip is scheduled to go to Assabet Vocational School in Marlboro. Worcester Seniors go there quite often and rate their lunches very highly. Possible stop may be made at one of two places of interest. On May 21, Thursday, we will visit the Slater Mill site in Pawtucket. The Old Slater Mill was built in 1793 for the production of machine-spun cotton yarn, and was the first factory in America to successfully produce yarn with water-powered carding and spinning frames, a major turning point in the nation's history. Trained tour guides will be there, and the tour will include the Slater Mill, the Wilkinson Mill, and the Sylvanus Brown House (1758), the Slater Mill dam and power canal, and over two acres of river-front park. On Tuesday, May 26, a trip to Arnold Arboretum is planned. Bring a picnic lunch. The trip will be canceled if weather is unfavorable.

A big bus trip to the Lawrence Welk Show at the Civic Center is planned for Thursday, June 11. Because of the difficulty of planning and getting good seats, we request that you get your money in for tickets by May 4, the day that tickets go on sale. If we get enough reservations, the Council on Aging will assume the cost of transportation for Mattapoisett Seniors. If space is available on the bus, Seniors from neighboring towns will be allowed to join us. There will be a small busing charge for these outsiders. Bus would leave at 6:30 p.m. from St. Anthony's. The show starts at 8:00 p.m.

Those of you who have tickets to the Concert Series of the New Bedford Symphony Orchestra should be reminded that the last concert is scheduled for Saturday, May 16, 8 o'clock at the "old" New Bedford High School. We still have a few tickets available at the Council on Aging Office.

University of Massachusetts where he teaches music theory and conducts the University Chorus. The Chorale, under his direction, was started as a student ensemble in 1948. The group has toured extensively in the United States and abroad. In five concert tours of Europe, the Chorale has presented programs in concert sites ranging from Chartres Cathedral, France, to the Rudolph Steiner School in Berlin; and from Oxford University, England, to San Marco in Venice. In 1976 they joined the Brass Choir conducted by Prof. Walter Chestnut, trumpeter, heard recently as guest artist at the Tri-County Symphonic Band Concert in Mattapoisett, for a tour of Romania. At the close of the current season, the Chorale numbering fifty-three singers will be making plans for a tour in 1982 of Poland and the Soviet Union. This widely-acclaimed Ensemble is among the many University student groups in our country making goodwill tours for greater appreciation and understanding among the nations through the arts.

The Fairhaven concert is open to the public. There is no admission charge but a freewill offering will be taken. The evening will close with a reception in the Parish House, and all are cordially invited.

The visiting students are staying overnight, and will be the house guests of the Church members and others throughout the community. On Sunday morning, May 10, Dr. du Bois will conduct a program for the ten step to Miss America held in Atlantic City, New Jersey each September. This nationwide scholarship fund designed solely for young women between the ages of 17 and 26 years annually awards over two million dollars to contestant winners. The Miss Wareham Pageant is coming back to Wareham this year, said Ms. Blair. "Our franchise area covers the towns of Bourne, Wareham, Plymouth, Rochester, Marion, Carver, Middleboro and Mattapoisett, and for the past several years our pageant was held in another town in order to incorporate those areas into our pageant activities. But, I'm very pleased to be producing our competition back in our town once again."

Lynn Mallette, Miss Wareham 1980, was fourth runner-up to Miss Massachusetts last June. Miss Mallette will be crowning the new Miss Wareham 1981 on Saturday, May 2nd, at the Wareham Town Hall.

Any young lady interested in competing for the title of Miss Wareham may contact Rita L. Blair, 295-1482.

Several young women have already indicated their entrance into this year's contest. To date, they represent Middleboro, Plymouth, Bridgewater, and Wareham. Each contestant will be judged in the following competitions: Personal Interview; Talent; Swimsuit; Evening Gown and On-Stage Personality by a qualified panel of judges.

Ticket information will be available from each contestant as well as being sold at the door.

ternoon. Many persons availed themselves of the opportunity to tour the Laboratory and ask questions of the Lab personnel. The afternoon was complete with crackers, cheese and finger-licking goodies.

Dr. Raymond Baxter, retired medical staff member who was a patient, was brought to the Laboratory and enjoyed meeting with old acquaintances, colleagues and employees who served with him over the many years.

The Laboratory staff is proud of its accomplishments during the year, especially that of keeping abreast of ever-changing high technology in the medical field and is elated at the chance to share the fruits of its endeavors with other people. Its dedication is to provide the best possible diagnostic support to the doctor and the patient. The Laboratory staff is already looking forward to next year and another open house.

NEW X-RAY SYSTEM AT UNION HOSPITAL REDUCES RADIATION

Most of us have had an x-ray at some time or another. Following an accident or as part of a routine examination, your doctor ordered an x-ray to aid him in his diagnosis.

The effects that exposure to radiation from x-rays have on the human body is a subject of increasing concern. Because of extensive studies and research, the effort to reduce radiation exposure has produced some major breakthroughs.

A new x-ray system at Union Hospital of New Bedford, introduced in the hospital on March 26, has among its benefits a substantial decrease in radiation to patients and staff, better x-rays and longer-lasting equipment.

The new system, according to Arthur D. Burke, M.D., chief of Radiology at Union Hospital, consists of rare earth screens and companion cassettes and film, manufactured by Eastman Kodak Company. "The primary advantage of this system is the reduction of radiation exposure to the patient," said Burke. "Kodak's rare earth system cuts the average radiation dose for an x-ray in half, and often up to 75 percent, because of the shorter time required to take the x-ray", Burke explained.

Likewise, employees in the hospital's Radiology Department receive less indirect radiation exposure.

"There are other advantages to this system as well. Because of the reduced time needed to take the x-ray, there is less of a chance that the patient will move, which results in better quality x-rays and fewer retakes. Also, the x-ray tubes, costing between $5,000 and $7,000 each, will conceivably last two to three times longer because the amount of radiation is so greatly diminished. This represents a major savings to the hospital," stated Burke.

The x-ray screen contains elements which convert radiation to light. This light produces the x-ray picture when it hits the film.

In the new screen, the rare earth chemicals are two to three times more efficient in converting this x-ray energy, substantially reducing the radiation dose.

"Our first concern in any medical procedure is the safety and care of our patient", said Executive Director Robert F. Davis. "Our goal in Radiology is to produce the best quality x-ray image with the least amount of radiation to our patients. I think we will be very successful with this new system."

Major rehabilitation of the Sagamore Highway Bridge over the Cape Cod Canal will begin this summer under the terms of a recently awarded federal contract. The New England Division, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, has awarded the contract to Seaward Construction Company of Kittery, Maine, for a contract price of nearly $8 million.

The work will include replacement of the bridge deck, installation of new hanger cables, repairs to structural steel members, repairing and painting of the superstructure, and installation of eight-foot high suicide deterrent fences atop the existing bridge railings.

Similar work, except for hanger cable replacement, on the Bourne Bridge is nearing completion following two years of construction. Both bridges were constructed by the Engineers in the mid-1930s and have been subjected to periodic maintenance since that time. The work being completed on the Bourne and schedule to begin on the Sagamore is the first major rehabilitation in their 46 year existence.

Preliminary work on the Sagamore Bridge will begin during the summer months and some temporary traffic disruptions may be experienced during this initial stage. These disruptions, however, will be limited to weekdays and the bridge will be fully open for weekend traffic.

Once major operations begin on September 14th, travel will be restricted in accordance with an established pattern on weekdays as follows:

6:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. - Northbound (off Cape).

2:00 P.M. to 6:00 A.M. - Southbound (on Cape).

From 2:00 P.M. Friday until noon on Sunday, traffic will flow onto the Cape, and from noon on Sunday until 2:00 P.M. Monday travel will be in the northbound, off-Cape direction.

This schedule will continue until May 25, 1982.

Commercial buses will be permitted to use the bridge in the direction of flow. Special arrangements for school buses to pass over the structure in convoy fashion are being worked out with school officials.

Local police will be on duty at each end of the bridge and will assure immediate access for emergency vehicles.

During the construction period, the one-way travel will be restricted to passenger vehicles and 2 axle trucks. Larger vehicles will not be permitted.

Special information on current traffic conditions may be obtained by contacting the Engineers' toll-free hotline at: 1-800-342-8771.

TON BAROQUE CHAMBER PLAYERS will present the final concert in the Candlelight Concert Series at the First Parish Church of Duxbury (Route 3A and Depot Street). The ensemble consisting of flute, oboe, violin, violoncello and harpsichord will be performing 18th century masterworks by Fasch, Boismortier, Vivaldi, C.P.E. and J.S. Bach. This program will be the last of four chamber music concerts in the third season of this ongoing series under the artistic direction of Edwin Swanborn.

The Boston Baroque Chamber Players, founded by harpsichordist Edwin Swanborn in 1972, includes flutist Robert Stallman, oboist Timothy Valentine, and cellist Bruce Coppock. This concert will see the reunion of the group with its original violinist, Juan Ramirez, who will travel from his present home in Atlanta, Georgia for this event.

Violinist Juan Ramirez began his musical studies in Mexico at the Conservatorio Nacional where his principal teacher was Henryk Szeryng. He came to the N. E. Conservatory in Boston in the late 60's to study with Joseph Silverstein, concertmaster of the B.S.O. In 1975, Mr. Ramirez joined the Atlanta Symphony and two years of local farmers and businessmen. Now, in its third year, the successful open air market, located in the heart of downtown, officially opens on Saturday, May 9th, Mother's Day weekend, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The market plans to operate every Saturday, rain or shine, until October 31st. By popular demand, this market extends to a twice-weekly event starting Wednesday, June 3rd; hours 10:00 a.m. - 2 p.m.

The location on the Purchase Street mall is ideal - making the market-place easily accessible to interstate 195, and Routes 6 and 18. Ample parking is nearby, both on the surrounding streets and in two nearby high rise parking garages.

The Growers' Market is fast becoming a "happening" in downtown, a place that is regaining an image as a center for community gatherings. Besides offering goods such as crisp vegetables, fresh fruit, eggs and honey, quahogs, cut flowers and potted plants, the New Bedford market creates a unique atmosphere. A big plus this year is the series of live contemporary band concerts scheduled to perform on the mall throughout the summer, courtesy of Downtown Action Committee.

Fifty-eight different exhibitors ranging from farmers, backyard growers to garden clubs and nurserymen supported last year's market. As a result, this twice a week festivity establishes itself as a recognized "event" on Office of Tourism's summer schedule.

Cancer Crusade

CANCER CONTROL MONTH

Governor Edward J. King recently proclaimed April Cancer Control Month in Massachusetts. During April, more than 110,000 American Cancer Society volunteers from throughout the state will conduct the Society's annual educational and fund-raising Cancer Crusade.

"This year alone", Governor King said,

"there will be about 23,000 new cancer cases among men, women and children of all ages in Massachusetts. The American Cancer Society provides invaluable aid in rehabilitation services to cancer patients."

As an important part of this year's Crusade, Cancer Society volunteers will be distributing life-saving coupons to their neighbors on April 28 in the first phase of the Society's statewide Bowel Cancer Detection Day.

"Bowel (colon-rectum) cancer -- the second greatest cancer killer -- will claim almost 1,800 lives in Massachusetts this year," Governor King said. "Many of these people could have been saved if their cancers had been detected early and treated promptly."

The coupons can be redeemed locally on May 13 for a free bowel cancer screening kit, a do-it-yourself take-home test used to detect possible signs of bowel cancer.

The American Cancer Society receives no funds from the federal government or the United Way. Its programs of research, cancer prevention, public and professional education and service to cancer patients are funded by public contribution.

Square Rigger Cruises

The New England Historic Seaport headquartered on Boston's waterfront is sponsoring four summer sea experience cruises on board the Norwegian full-rigged tall ship "Sorlandet", and has revised the sailing schedule to include two voyages from and to England, in between which will be two round-trip cruises from Boston to Bermuda. These cruises are offered as a means of promoting maritime heritage of New England and bringing access to the sea to a greater number of American youth.

Because of the response to the Boston-Bermuda-Boston cruise, the Historic Seaport, a non-profit corporation, has re-scheduled the July 15th voyage to Halifax, Nova Scotia for a second trip to Bermuda. Furthermore, instead of one trans-Atlantic voyage to include a cruise from the Canary Islands to Boston, the "Sorlandet" will initially leave from England on its first sailing, and return to England on its last voyage.

The ship will leave England the early part of June arriving in Boston on July 10th. The second cruise will depart Boston for Bermuda about July 15th and return about July 24th. A third cruise leaves for Bermuda about July 27th returning about August 7th. The final cruise trans-Atlantic will leave Boston about August 13th and return to England about September 2nd. Air transportation to and from England will be arranged for the trainees.

These Sea Experience Cruises are designed for the general age group 16 to 25 years; however, Father-Son, Mother-Daughter pairs are encouraged: some adults above age 25 may be accommodated.

These cruises are planned to help fit young people to develop their full potential and add to their knowledge of the sea, its navigation, its resources, and maritime heritage. They are not typical pleasure cruises, and "cadets" will receive instruction each day, stand sea-going watches, handle the ship's sails, and accomplish a number of chores, while still enjoying themselves on each cruise.

The "Sorlandet" is a 200 foot, square-rigger, owned in the City of Kristiansand, Norway and flies the flag of that country. She is an all steel ship, built to Veritas Standards, comparable to Lloyds 1A1 class, and is maintained to that standard.

Costs for each cruise are modest, and top priority will be given to those who have earned some or all of their cruise fees.

Persons interested in further information or an application should write to the New England Historic Seaport, Inc., Commonwealth Pier, 164 Northern Avenue, Boston, MA. 02210, or telephone 482-1976.
